Future Hotel Skins by WT @ HORECA Greece 2012

www.facebook.com Future Hotel 2011 is a new architectural project designed to change the hotel's "skin and soul" with focus on innovation in materials and technologies. A pioneering concept of regeneration through interchangeable building envelopes and new technological solutions to transform the interior and exterior of hotels and receptive structures like bars and restaurants. Thanks to next-generation technologies, the surfaces breathe, change and characterize the building. A new immaterial s ...
